GERMAN MIND IS UNCHANGED

War Fails to Jar Conceit of Teuton, Says Observer of Long Experience.

MENTAL ISOLATION ABSOLUTE

Unable to Understand How They Are Detested—The German of Today Is to All Intents and Purposes the Same as in 1913.

London. — Although Berlin has changed since 1914, the German mind remains unchanged. Neither the holocaust of dead nor the crash of thrones has shaken Germany out of her self-conceit, according to what G. Valentine Williams, formerly correspondent of Reuter's Agency in Berlin, tells the London Daily Mail.

"The German mind," he says, "does not seem to have altered."

"Albeit sadly puzzled to account for the utter break-down of the entire German system, in his outlook on life the German of 1920 is to most intents and purposes the German of 1913. In a world which to British eyes is strangely changed by five years of World war the mental isolation of the German is absolute. To talk to him makes you feel that the German of today is the loneliest creature on God's earth."

"Yet with heavy deliberation he is communing with himself to ascertain the causes of his defeat. But he is not examining his conscience."

"Any Berlin bookshop will show you the chaos prevailing in the German mind."

Nothing of the Present.

"Professor Steinach's rejuvenation experiments, Einstein's theory of light, Maynard Keynes and Norman Angell on the Versailles Peace—both books in German translations and prominently displayed—treatises on spiritualism, atheism, free love, and the like—works of this description stand side by side with a mass of frankly pornographic literature. Here will you find reasoned explanations for the past, complicated schemes for the future, but nothing practical to deal with the problems of the present. And above all, no contrition for Germany's crime against mankind."

"The German surveyed the world from his castle of militarism. Now that it has collapsed he is left floundering in a sea of doubts and fears. The Germans with whom I have spoken expect us to hold them guiltless of the past because, they say, they have rid Germany of her military caste."

"They have, it is true, expelled the bloody-minded blunderers surrounding that eminent nonentity, William the Second-rater, because they failed to keep their promise to establish German world-domination. But the German people is governed by the herd instinct, and the expulsion of the Old Gang in the circumstances of military defeat and home panic in which the Hohenzollerns were sent away requires weightier evidence of a change of heart than is forthcoming in Germany today. If it is to be accepted as a proof of the death of German militarism."

Blank Indifference.

"Talk to a Frenchman of any class, and you will, sooner or later, come upon a well-banked but fiercely smouldering Republican ardor. Talk to a German about his government and you will find, at the best, lukewarm interest; at the worst, resentful ridicule towards the German Republic."

"The average attitude is one of blank indifference. The German man in the street never thought for himself. He does not do so today. The question of the future is, what party will emerge from the present chaos to do his thinking for him?"

"The Germans are perfectly willing to forgive us for the war. They talk glibly about 'this unhappy war' with the air of a man making perfunctory excuses for some social lapse. In some may be detected in addition a little air of condescension in speaking of the late unpleasantness as though to draw attention to their magnanimity in accepting the war as an inevitable catastrophe, 'an act of God,' as the insurance policies say. And even today I find that the great majority of Germans have no idea of the abhorrence in which the very name German is held in the Anglo-Saxon countries and in France and Belgium."

LANDSLIDE DISCLOSES COAL MINE IN FLEMING COUNTY

What is believed to be a valuable coal mine has been discovered in Fleming county about nine miles from Flemingsburg on a farm owned by Wat Strode, between Sugar Loaf Mountain and Foxport. A short time ago a landslide on the side of the hill exposed some coal. The coal was tested and burned by several persons living in that neighborhood who declare it is of good quality. It has not been examined by any who claim any special knowledge along that line, but it is thought a fine vein of coal has been exposed.

PROPOSES MANUFACTURING BODY

(Mt. Sterling Advocate)

In Congressman Cantrill's address to the tobacco growers, warehousemen and bankers at Lexington, numbering about 2,500, Mr. Cantrill suggested nothing new, but emphasized the course as mapped out by others with the same hopeful vision that better prices may prevail by dividing the sales in two parts and cutting out the 1921 crop entirely. As we see it, to prevent recurrences of continuous low prices a firm and compact growers' organization for the manufacture of the weed is the only alternative, as the sooner such an organization is effected the better for growers now, and their successors, as well as all lines of business.

"Made Me Well and Strong"

ANOTHER WOMAN WHO IS THANKFUL FOR PE-RU-NA

"I have taken several bottles of Pe-ru-na and find it a great benefit. I had pains in my stomach and bowels, but by the use of Pe-ru-na and Man-a-lin, I am well and strong again. I always keep a few bottles in the house."
Mrs. OWENS GRAY,
R. F. D. No. 2, Box 19,
Nichols, Iowa

Mrs. Gray's experience is just more evidence that Pe-ru-na is quite as good a remedy for catarrh of the stomach, bowels or other organs as it is for coughs, colds and nasal catarrh. Pe-ru-na is a wonderfully fine medicine to have in the house for everyday ills.

Help Control "Busy" Reports

Out of the thousands of telephone calls made daily, about ten per cent result in a report of busy lines.

This enormous number of busy reports is due largely to the fact that many subscribers repeat their calls at intervals of a few seconds.

Making immediate and repeated calls for a busy line causes much unnecessary work for the operator and is a wasteful use of lines and equipment.

It will improve your service and help the general service of the community if you will wait a few minutes after receiving the busy report before making a second call.
